

I can take deep breaths or talk to my family to feel better.

OR

I will stay in the new place until the water goes away, and it is safe to return home.

Staying safe and being with my family is most important.

